

This is a card game where all cards are initially placed face down on the playing surface, and two cards are revealed on each turn.

The objective of the game is to match pairs of identical cards. Upon completing a level, a wheel appears, offering a chance to earn additional points.